Our surgeons achieve one of the best results and durability of repairing mitral valve together with anchoring with valve ring instead of replacing prosthetic valve in patients with degenerative mitral valve diseases. The advantages of mitral valve repair are:

1) no disease or risk of valve prosthesis; 2) no long-term anticoagulation; 3) better in terms of maintenance of cardiac function by means of preserved left ventricular geometry and subvalvular integrity.

For more information, please visit http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gSNty0jz0BU