

- What is TAVI?

Transcatheter Aortic-Valve Implantation (TAVI) is another option for patients with aortic stenosis who have high risk for surgery or contraindication for open heart surgery. Recent studies have shown a significant reduction in mortality compared with standard treatment. The implantation involves accessing femoral artery, placing the catheter, balloon dilatation of native aortic valve, deploying the valve and frame over the native aortic valve area.

Please view TAVI video at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kC2pJEUL-tA>

- Where do we stand?

Transcatheter Aortic Valve Implantation (TAVI)

Sunday, 25 December 2011 14:07

open the way for high quality medical services to be provided at the new Songklanagarind Hospital. It is fully