

Cardiothoracic anesthesiology is a medical practice of anesthesiology devoted to the preoperative, intraoperative, and postoperative care of adult patients undergoing cardiothoracic surgery. It is the most intellectually challenging and demanding subspecialty in anesthesiology. Cardiac anesthesiologist plays an important role in operation success. Hemodynamic peri and post operative care is managed by our specialized cardiac anesthesiologist.